She is the governor's point person on Bay Delta. Jared and I have been having bi-weeklies with her for a number of months now - but we haven't had one in a month or so. Now that the document is on the street, there really isn't much for us to "discuss". I'm happy to call her just to see if there is anything on her end she wants to tell us. Our comments are now due Oct 30 - so we are kind of in a radio silence mode.
